The next leg of the journey . . .

The Genesis Process got you off to a great start in your recovery from sexual addiction, but changing life-long habits and coping skills can often involve an extended battle that benefits from additional support, encouragement and insight.

Operation Freedom Fight has been specifically developed for those who already know and understand the basic Genesis concepts but want to learn how to better utilize them in their own day-to-day recovery.

Each week's O.F.F. mission will involve a guided exploration of one of the ten most prevalent roadblocks to lasting recovery. Together we will develop tactical strategies to overcome these and other more personal obstacles.

The second hour of each session will be dedicated to inviting God to provide insight and help with individual challenges through healing prayer and other spiritual intercessions.

This unique format will help you build expertise and employ strategic tactics that will allow you to emerge victorious from your would-be captor.
